Pursuant to W.Va. Code § 31A-2-12a (b) and (c) obtaining excessive concentration or control of the deposit resources of this state by merger or acquisition is antithetical to fostering a competitive environment. The deposit cap limitation has been set at twenty-five percent (25%) of the total amount of all deposits held by insured depository institutions.

Depository institutions as defined in W.Va. Code §31A-2-12a (d) shall include, but are not limited to, state-chartered banking institutions, national banking associations, federal savings and loan associations, bank holding companies, savings and loan holding companies, federal savings banks, state-chartered credit unions and federally-chartered credit unions.

Bank holding companies do not have the authority to accept deposits directly, only through their subsidiary banks, savings banks or savings and loan institutions.

Savings and loan holding companies do not have the authority to accept deposits directly, only through their subsidiary savings banks or savings and loan institutions.

(1), (2), (3) Obtained by the West Virginia Division of Financial Institutions from the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. No adjustments were made for "pass-through" deposits held by other West Virginia financial institutions as the dollar amount is believed negligible.

(4) Obtained from the National Credit Union Administration.
